

Felicitas Maria Sokec
Artist

A multi-disciplinary artist and artist educator, Felicitas recently moved to Tucson from Minneapolis to continue developing her art and teach students of all ages and abilities. Since arriving on the scene, she has hung work in the District 6 exhibit on "Space", installed mosaic tile murals in private homes, painted outdoor murals, won second place in the local public transit company's photo contest and continues to teach art and professional cake decorating. Felicitas' work includes fine art, fine craft, graphic design, performance, literary, and "outsider" art. She is an advocate for art in public places and possesses a great passion for community building and teaching art to special needs students. Sandra Duarte
Graphic Artist

Sandra Duarte is a Graphic Designer and a recent graduate of the Art Center Design College. As a student she has involved in marketing campaigns with the National Student Advertising Competition (NSAC) sponsored by the American Advertising Federation (AAF). Her team placed at the District level each year and earned a spot in the National Competition in 2007.

Sandra participates as a committee member for the Tucson Advertising Federation's Addy Awards show and as a volunteer when Tucson hosted the NSAC earlier this year.

Sandra began working on the program for the Tucson Celtic Festival in 2005.
